רחל שרת

This architectural floor plan illustrates the layout of Apartment 171. The plan features a large central living area with a fireplace, a dining room, a kitchen equipped with a double sink and a built-in oven, and a breakfast nook. A staircase leads to an upper level containing three bedrooms, one of which includes an en-suite bathroom. Another bathroom is located on the main level. Various rooms are connected by multiple doorways, and there are several windows and a balcony on the right side.
